Chief von Eckartsberg,

Please consider this notice of my retirement from the Dublin Division of Police effective September 21, 2015. After twenty-two years of service with the city and nine years in the US military, I am looking forward to the next chapter of my life and exploring other opportunities.

It has been an honor to serve the citizens of Dublin and making the city one of the safest places in America. I also want to thank the officers and staff I worked with over the years that made coming to work each day a joy.

Sincerely,
